Projects

My Portfolio Website

I have developed a responsive portfolio website showcasing my skills and projects. This website serves as a dynamic platform to highlight my proficiency in web development, featuring a modern design that adapts seamlessly across devices. Through this portfolio, I demonstrate my expertise in front-end technologies such as HTML5, CSS3 ensuring an engaging user experience. Visitors can explore my work, including projects that illustrate my creativity and technical capabilities. This portfolio not only serves as a visual resume but also underscores my commitment to quality and innovation in web development.

Personal Blog

I have developed a personal blog webpage using HTML and CSS, showcasing my insights and expertise in Web design. This blog features a clean and responsive design, ensuring optimal viewing on various devices. By leveraging HTML for structuring content and CSS for styling, I created a visually appealing layout that enhances readability and user experience. The blog serves as a platform for sharing informative articles and reflections and demonstrating my proficiency in front-end web development.

IOT Using C & Arduino

I designed and implemented an IoT automation project using C and Arduino, showcasing my expertise in embedded systems. This project involved integrating sensors and actuators to automate home appliances, environmental monitoring, etc. Through proficient C programming and Arduino hardware, I ensured precise control and data processing, highlighting my skills in practical application of IoT technology.
